Oremus pro invicem “Let us pray for each other”

Father Edward C. Hathaway, Rector

SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI & OUR ANNUAL PROCESSION

Today, June 19, is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi. This joyous feast honors the central and mysterious dogma of the Catholic faith: that the substances of bread and wine are really and truly changed into the substances of the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ in the Eucharist. The change occurs through transubstantiation (“change of substance”) at the Consecration of the Mass, when the priest says the words Christ Himself pronounced over bread and wine: “This is My Body,” “This is the chalice of My Blood,” “Do this in remembrance of Me.”

Saint John Chrysostom wrote: “It is not man that causes the things offered to become the Body and Blood of Christ, but He who was crucified for us, Christ Himself. The priest, in the role of Christ, pronounces these words, but their power and grace are God’s.”

Everyone is invited to join us for our annual Corpus Christi Procession today, following the 5 p.m. Mass. We will process with the monstrance, bearing the Blessed Sacrament, from the Basilica to the school gym (400 Green Street) and back. Afterward, we will have a light reception in the parish courtyard at 314 Duke Street. I hope to see you there!

FATHER’S DAY

Today is also Father’s Day! Fatherhood has its origins in God, who chose to reveal Himself to us as Our Father, sending His only Son for the sake of our salvation. The love of God the Father is revealed through the Son. All fathers have a special role “in revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God” (Familiaris consortio 25).

Father’s Day is an appropriate time to recall the essential role of fathers in the life of the family and in building a culture of life. It is also an opportunity to highlight spiritual fatherhood, which all men are called to embrace.

A Prayer for Christian Fathers

Heavenly Father, You entrusted Your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father. Bless all fathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience; support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to You for love and salvation, through Jesus Christ our rock and defender. Amen.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK 2022: Life & Dignity for All

Beginning Wednesday, June 22 (Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, Martyrs), through Wednesday, June 29 (Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles), the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) encourages all Catholics to pray, reflect and act to promote religious freedom around the world. We are especially asked to pray for the Church in China, where “freedom of religion” is conditioned by what the government deems to be permissible, and that the rights of all religious minorities may be respected.

For more information, visit https://www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek-June\_26\_2022\_China. You also can stay informed about the struggles of people of faith in other parts of the world by using that link to sign up for the USCCB’s religious liberty newsletter, First Freedom News.

Q & A Exploring & Practicing Our Catholic Faith

Q: What is excommunication? Can it be reversed?

Excommunication is the Church's most severe penalty, imposed for particularly grave sins. The excommunicated person is deprived of receiving the sacraments and other privileges. The purpose is to shock the sinner into repentance and conversion for the sake of their immortal soul. Mercifully, it does not forever lock the door of the Church, but offers hope the individual will repent and return to full communion with the Church.

The Code of Canon Law provides for two forms of excommunication: 1) excommunication imposed by a proper authority (ferendae sententiae) and 2) excommunication incurred automatically (latae sententiae). In the first form, a bishop may directly impose excommunication after giving due warning. The bishop, or his delegate, may remit the penalty when the sinner has repented and sought reconciliation. In the second form, a person who is an apostate from the faith, a heretic or a schismatic, or one who procures a successful abortion, is automatically excommunicated. In these cases, the local bishop, or a delegated priest, can remit the penalty. In some very grievous cases, only the pope can lift the ban of an automatic excommunication: if a person desecrates the Blessed Sacrament or uses it for a sacrilegious purpose, if a person uses physical force against the pope, if a priest absolves an accomplice in a sin against the Sixth Commandment, if a bishop consecrates someone as a bishop without the permission of the Holy Father or if a priest violates the seal of confession.

As many graduates seek their way in the world, some are forced to take lesser jobs to help their families make ends meet. Tina is one of those. Despite a college degree, she knew she had to stay home to help provide for her ailing mom and two younger siblings. She's working at Harris-Teeter. We discussed her future at length, and it was clear that via online and night school, she could get a certificate making her eligible to be a medical assistant. We said we would pay for that training and introduced her to another young lady who was now working in a doctor's office, for practical advice and guidance. Tina now has a path forward toward a better-paying job that will not only help her family, but provide for advancement to much more than a living wage. You can help us change lives like Tina's. Consider joining us as a volunteer or donating to our mission of charity and hope.

Final Vows Come & See Discernment Retreat with the Daughters of Saint Paul

July 8-10

Join the Daughters of Saint Paul here in Alexandria for a three-day experience of the life, spirituality and mission of the sisters in anticipation of the final profession of vows of Sister Chelsea Bethany. In addition to prayer time, conferences on discernment and religious life, and community time with the sisters, retreatants will participate in the perpetual profession Mass of Sister Chelsea. This retreat is open to single Catholic women ages 18 to 33 who are discerning a vocation to religious life.

For additional information or to register for the retreat, visit <https://connect.pauline.org/final-vows/> or please contact Sister Emily Beata at vocations@paulinemediacom or 703.549.3806.

WHAT ARE THE SISTERS READING?

Check out Episode #349 of our Basilica podcasts at <https://stmaryoldtown.libsyn.com/>, featuring another monthly episode of "What Are the Sisters Reading?" The guests are Daughter of Saint Paul Sister Kathryn Hermes, FSP, with her thoughts on Saint Charles de Foucauld: His Life and Spirituality. The book offers an insightful portrait of this recently canonized saint. In the podcast's second interview, Sister Emily Beata Marsh, FSP, reflects on a children's book, Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque and the Sacred Heart of Jesus, written by Sister Emily. (The feast of the Sacred Heart is coming up this week, on June 24.)

To find more books on the Catholic faith and religious items of interest at the Pauline Books and Media Center, visit them at 1025 King Street in Alexandria, or go to <https://paulinestore.com/alexandria>.

Phishing/scam e-mails recently have been sent to some Basilica of Saint Mary staff members, apostolate leaders and parishioners. The phony messages appear to be from Father Hathaway, but are actually from scammers claiming to be him, using a fake gmail account that appears to be connected to the Basilica.

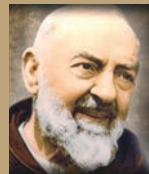

Please be on alert for such messages; disregard and delete them. Do not respond, provide any personal information or send money if the message seems suspicious. Also, do not download attachments that come with messages from suspicious or unknown senders.

Although a message may appear to be from Father Hathaway, or another member of the Basilica clergy or staff, the best way to verify is to check the sender's e-mail address. All legitimate correspondence from the Basilica will originate from an e-mail address that ends in @stmaryoldtown.org.

Thank you for your vigilance.

PADRE PIO RELICS TO VISIT BASILICA

On Thursday, June 23, relics of Saint Pio of Pietrelcina, or Padre Pio, will visit the Basilica of Saint Mary as part of a national tour sponsored by the Saint Pio Foundation. The relics will be displayed in the Basilica for veneration after our 8 a.m. Mass until 8 p.m. Special Padre Pio prayer cards will be available at the back of the church. Following the 12:10 p.m. Mass, Father Jerome Fasano — a former pastor of Saint John the Baptist Church in Front Royal who has a deep devotion to Saint Pio and a keen understanding of the humble Italian priest's spirituality — will provide a reflection on the saint's life. If possible, please find a few minutes that day to spend time in the Basilica, in prayer in the presence of these precious mementos of a holy man.

For more information about the tour, go to <https://saintpiofoundation.org/padre-pio-relics-tour>.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

A periodic look at the history of our Basilica of Saint Mary parish since its founding in 1795

JANE & CARRIE CROUCH

Lyles-Crouch Traditional Academy, an Alexandria public school less than three blocks from the Basilica of Saint Mary, at 530 South Saint Asaph Street, is named for a Saint Mary parishioner — Jane Solomon Crouch. She was a pioneer in the education of Alexandria's Black children.

While Jane Solomon was born free in Alexandria in 1835, her father, Townsend Solomon, was formerly enslaved and the "body servant" of a prominent Alexandrian, William Fowle. At that time, it was illegal in Virginia to teach enslaved people to read and write. However, Alexandria was still part of the District of Columbia, so Black children could receive some education. Jane and her sister, Sarah, attended a small school for Black children run by a woman named Sylvia Rogers. After Alexandria was returned to Virginia in 1847, this was no longer permitted and the city closed the school.

Wanting their daughters to continue their education, the Solomons sent them to Saint Francis Academy, a boarding school in Baltimore run by the Oblate Sisters of Providence, the Black religious order founded by Mother Mary Lange. After graduating, Jane wanted to teach other Blacks but could only teach free people of color. After Alexandria was occupied by Union troops, Blacks flocked to the city, seeking freedom. Realizing the importance of education, Jane and Sarah A. Gray, a friend and classmate from Saint Francis Academy, began the Saint Rose Institute on South West Street, an evening school for former slaves. Jane continued her own education by attending summer school at the Hampton Institute, now Hampton University.

She also married Frederick Crouch and had a daughter, Carrie, born around 1867. Carrie attended the same school as her mother in Baltimore and taught for many years in Alexandria's public schools. She was a founder of nearby Saint Joseph Church. In 1870, Jane Solomon Crouch passed the examination to become a public school teacher. She taught at the Hallowell School for girls on North Alfred Street and served as its principal. She died on March 12, 1882. According to the Alexandria Gazette, her funeral at Saint Mary Church had "an overflowing attendance."

Old Lyles-Crouch School

In 1934, Alexandria announced plans to open a new school to serve its growing Black community on the south side of the city. Located in an old silk factory, Lyles-Crouch opened in 1935. The school was named to recognize the contributions of two local Black educators — Rozier Lyles and Jane Solomon Crouch.
